

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

L.A.C. Ross Wheatley, R.A.A.F., son of Mr. Les Wheatley, of The Crescent, Fairfield, is home on leave. Driver Noel Wheatley was also home on leave, and both brothers met after a long absence.

Aldermen P. Hill, M.L.A. (Mayor), J. G. McBurney (Deputy Mayor), A. Reardon, E. C. Lunn, A. E. Adams, E. H. J. Harris and R. P. Kew were in attendance at Monday night's meeting of Cabra-Vale Council.

Home from New Guinea on leave is Aircraftman Max Woods, R.A.A.F., of York Street, Fairfield.

Lionel Latchworth, of Wrentmore St., Fairfield, collapsed at Liverpool Railway on Friday. He was revived by Liverpool Ambulance with CO₂, and conveyed to Liverpool Hospital.

Jack Montifore, of Hume Highway, Canley Vale, was admitted to Liverpool Hospital on Friday last, with a fractured collarbone, as the result of a fall from a cycle at Carramar.

On Sunday, Gary Spilsbury, 2 years, of Canley Road, Cabramatta, was admitted to the Children's Hospital, with injuries from a kick on the head by a horse.

A happy family re-union took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Stein, of Kenyon Street, Fairfield, last week when their two sons, Capt. Frank and Digger Roy (who was with the Commandos) arrived home on leave. Capt. Stein brought his wife and baby daughter with him, and they are now staying with Mr. Stein's mother, Mrs. Grant, of Station Street, Fairfield.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tyson, of 99 Longfield Street, Cabramatta, will be pleased to learn that they celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Tuesday, October 26.

Mrs. Ellen Sanderson, of Fairfield, is a patient in Auburn Hospital.

As the result of shock sustained by being accidentally locked in a refrigeration chamber at Villawood, Mrs. T. Rainford, of Chester Hill, was conveyed to her home after treatment at hospital.

Francis Norman, of Railway Parade, Cabramatta, is a patient in Liverpool Hospital.

Mrs. Chislet, of Ingleburn, who fell and fractured her leg, is a patient in Camden Hospital; and Mrs. T. B. Moore, who underwent an operation, is progressing slowly. All wish them a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Johnston, of Chetwynd Road, Merrylands, has now received word that her son, Cpl. A. Johnston, was not wounded, as previously reported, but he has undergone a major operation. He is doing well.

Mr. G. H. Davis, veteran proprietor of the "Picton Post," had the misfortune to fall and break his thigh on Sunday last. On Tuesday he was transferred to the War Memorial Hospital, Waverley.

Garry Spilsbury, 2½ years, of Townview Road, Cabramatta, was kicked on the head by a horse on Sunday. His skull was fractured, and he is in the Children's Hospital, Camperdown.